

Wiccan 'High Priestess' trades in her broom for a Bible

Please join Journey Community of Faith as Kendra Vaughan Hovey, former minister of the First Church of Wicca, shares her testimony about how and why she has converted to Christianity. Her testimony will include why she decided to close the First Church of Wicca and why she is opening a new Christian Church, Living Waters Community of Hope, under the mentorship of Pastor David Woods. The service will be held at the Ford Center (in the Miramar Retreat Center) located at 121 Parks Street, on Sunday, April 26 at 10 a.m. Adults only, please, as there are no facilities at the Ford Center for nursery or child care.
